1. Screening Questions

The below are GDPR required questions to determine if a full DPIA is required. ☒
1.1	Evaluating personal data to make automated decisions about individuals?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.2	Using special category data* or criminal offence or conviction data?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.3	Systematic monitoring of individuals or of a publicly accessible place?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.4	Evaluation or scoring, including profiling or making predictions about individuals systematically or on a large scale?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.5	Matching or combining datasets processed for different purposes or from different sources?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.6	Processing personal data about children or other vulnerable individuals?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.7	Processing where a personal data breach could jeopardise the physical health or safety of individuals?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.8	Using innovative technologies or the new application of existing technologies?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.9	Processing biometric data, including fingerprint and facial recognition and data?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.10	Collecting personal data without providing a privacy notice to the individual?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.11	Tracking an individual's geolocation or behaviour, including online behaviour?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.12	Collecting new personal data from a 3rd party source (not the individual) without providing them with a privacy notice (’invisible processing’)?	☐ No ☐ Yes

1.13	Large scale processing of personal data?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.14	Using personal data, we hold already for a new or different purpose?	☐ No ☐ Yes
1.15	Collecting personal data of a highly personal nature?	☐ No ☐ Yes

Screening Outcome
1.16	Will the processing involve any of the activities covered by questions 2.1 - 2.7?	☐ No ☐ Yes If yes, a DPIA must be carried out.
1.17	Will the processing involve two or more of the activities covered in questions 2.8 - 2.15?	☐ No ☐ Yes If yes, a DPIA must be carried out.
1.18	Will the processing involve one of the activities covered in questions 2.8 - 2.15?	☐ No ☐ Yes If yes, a DPIA is recommended but not mandatory.